

Quantum Technology Braille Literacy Scholarship Program

The Norman Wilson Notetaking Award

Application Form

Applications close 30 June 2007.

Applications are open to Australian and New Zealand residents.

Applications can be sent directly from students of any age who are undertaking any form of study.

Applications can be made on behalf of students under the age of 18 by a teacher or parent.

Please note: Stars (*) indicate required information and must be filled in.

Applicant's details

- ❖ Full name: _____
- ❖ Street Address: _____
- ❖ Suburb: _____ * State: _____ Post Code: _____
- ❖ Country: _____
- ❖ Daytime phone no: _____
Mobile: _____
Email address: _____
- Are you a Professional working with the applicant or their family? Yes/No
- ❖ Age: _____
Eye condition: _____
- ❖ level of vision: _____
- ❖ Currently a braille reader or learning Braille? Yes/No
- ❖ If no, is Braille learning planned for the future? Yes/No
- ❖ Australian or New Zealand resident? Yes/No
- ❖ I agree to participate in a public award ceremony? Yes/No
- ❖ I agree to sign a public release form for media purposes? Yes/No
I agree to be contacted at a later date to give feedback on my/my child's progress? Yes/No

- ❖ Signature: _____

Quantum Technology Pty Ltd PO Box 390, RYDALMERE, NSW 2116

Quantum Technology Braille Literacy Scholarship Program

The Norman Wilson Notetaking Award

Application Details

Using a maximum of fifteen (15) lines of twenty (20) characters, students must describe in Braille why notetaking is an important skill in their lives.

Students can submit any number of entries and use various writing styles including poetry, verse and humour.

Parents/professionals are welcome to provide any supporting material/documentation to their application.

The applications can be emailed to:

info@quantumtechnology.com.au

or mailed to: Quantum Technology, PO Box 390, Rydalmere NSW 2116, Australia

Terms and conditions:

- The prize can not be exchanged for other Quantum Technology products.
- Quantum Technology reserves the right to extend closing competition deadlines.
- The choice of winner(s) will be final and nonnegotiable.
- The winner must agree to information being used for promotional materials.